We are a New England based Bicycle Shop with our home base on the Connecticut shoreline. Our supplier relationships have grown so that we also have warehouses in the Southwest, West and Central US locations to supply our customers across North America. We've grown fast through strong support of our customer base. We answer everyone's email questions within 24 hours. Our suppliers have great inventory positions and all our locations help speed these cool products to your door. We are always expanding and trying out new products that we want to present to you. We actually ride bikes and have all age groups covered to obtain the best feedback. Many of our customers write back about how they are amazed at the product pricing and quality.
